2. Entrepreneurship Awareness Camp (EAC) of three days held at CCET (Degree Wing), Sec- 26 Chandigarh

The Institute Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Cell (IIEDC) organized an Entrepreneurship Awareness Camp (EAC) of three days (12/09/2018 to 14/09/2018) at CCET (Degree Wing), Sec- 26 Chandigarh which was sponsored by National Science & Technology Entrepreneurship Development Board (NSTEDB), Dept. of Science & Technology, Govt. of India. The aim of this camp was to create awareness among students of Engineering and Science courses about various facets of entrepreneurship as an alternative career option. The experts from various institutes like NITTTR, CSIO, MGSIPA, EDC (IT park), Indian Bank, Chandigarh Angel Network and various Entrepreneurs i.e. IdeanClan, hoolime, earthr.org shared their experiences and guided the budding engineers towards the path of entrepreneurship. The camp was coordinated by Dr. D. S. Saini, Dr. Ashwani Kumar and student members of IIEDC cell.

Dr. M. S. Gujral, Principal CCET (Degree Wing) also addressed the young engineers and asked them to move out of the areas of jobseekers and rather become job providers with innovative hi-tech ventures.
